Complete Personal Readings

This means several subjects not just one or two. The questions should be the how, why, when, where, which type of question, not "yes" or "no" questions. These questions should relate to the information you seek and the items you bring. The questions are to be written down with space between for you to make notes. He does not permit recording. As the reading progresses, other questions will come to mind and you may ask these also. Questions are not shown to him, they are for you to use during the reading. All questions must be asked during your reading.

Gather up to 10 items that relate to the information you are seeking. The best are photographs but may be photos in brochures, advertisements, or printed from the internet. They should be clear and large enough to see the face and eyes. If you are seeking information about career, buying or selling or other matters that have documents connected to them, bring documents (resumes, manuscripts, ect) . Group photos may be used for questions about one person or more than one per person.

When you arrive, be careful NOT to mention anything about yourself or the people, places, events or things that are connected to the information you seek in the reading. You are limited to the number of items you bring, but you are NOT limited to the number of questions you may ask. You ask as many as it takes to get the information you seek. Questions should be specific not vague or general.
